INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors
Polk-Burnett Electric Cooperative and Subsidiaries
Centuria, Wisconsin

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Polk-Burnett Electric Cooperative and Subsidiaries as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related consolidated statements of operations, members' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Polk-Burnett Electric Cooperative and Subsidiaries as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Polk-Burnett Electric Cooperative and Subsidiaries and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Polk-Burnett Electric Cooperative and Subsidiaries' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Polk-Burnett Electric Cooperative and Subsidiaries' internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Polk-Burnett Electric Cooperative and Subsidiaries' ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Note 1 NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Business

Polk-Burnett Electric Cooperative and Subsidiaries' (the Cooperative) principal line of business is providing electric service to residential and business customers residing in six rural counties in west central Wisconsin. The Cooperative, through the Subsidiary, sells propane at rates which are determined by management. Electric rates charged to customers are established by the Board of Directors.

Financial Statement Presentation

As a member-elected Board of Director regulated entity, the Cooperative accounts for the financial effects of regulation in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 980 Regulated Operations (FASB ASC 980). This statement allows for the recording of a regulatory asset or liability for amounts that will be collected or refunded through the rate-making process in the future. The accounting policies followed by the Cooperative are subject to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Uniform System of Accounts prescribed for Class A and B Electric Utilities. The accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as applied in the case of regulated electric utilities. The Cooperative uses the accrual method of accounting. The Cooperative believes, based on current regulatory circumstances, that its use of regulatory accounting is appropriate and in accordance with the provisions of FASB ASC 980.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Polk-Burnett Diversified Services, Inc. and its subsidiary Polk-Burnett Propane Services, Inc. as well as its affiliate Polk-Burnett Economic Development Corporation. All material intercompany transactions and accounts have been eliminated.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Cooperative to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash equivalents, accounts receivable and notes receivable. The Cooperative places its cash deposits and cash investment with high credit quality financial institutions and, by policy, generally limits the amount of credit exposure to any one financial institution. Concentrations of credit risk with respect to accounts receivable are limited due to the Cooperative's large number of customers. The Cooperative believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risks.

Use of Estimates

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates in the financial statements are plant useful lives and the self-funded medical insurance reserve. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Investments in Associated Cooperatives

Investments in associated cooperatives are recorded at cost plus undistributed allocated equities from other cooperatives. Patronage allocations are recognized in the year the allocation pertains to and are redeemable only at the option of the issuing cooperative.

Other Investments

Other investments are recorded at cost, which approximates fair market value.

General

The Cooperative maintains its books in conformance with the Uniform System of Accounts prescribed by the Rural Development Utilities Program (RDUP).

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Cooperative considers all highly liquid cash instruments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are stated at cost, which approximates fair market value.

Accounts Receivable

Receivables are stated at the amount the Cooperative expects to collect from outstanding balances. The Cooperative provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current expected credit losses described below. Balances that are still outstanding after the Cooperative has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to the receivable accounts. Changes in the valuation allowance have not been material to the financial statements.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2025 and 2024

Accounts Receivable (Continued)

Probable uncollectible amounts are estimated based on current expected credit losses. Management has elected to apply the practical expedient that the estimation of the allowance is based on an analysis of historical loss experience, current receivables aging, and management's assessment of current conditions, while assuming that such conditions will remain unchanged over the remaining life of the receivables. The Cooperative assesses collectability by pooling receivables where similar characteristics exist and evaluates receivables individually when specific customers balances no longer share those risk characteristics and are considered at risk or uncollectible. The Cooperative also considers amounts collected by the evaluation date, which is the report date, to determine that they were fully collectible for the purpose of estimating the allowance. The expense associated with the allowance is recognized in customer accounts expense.

Inventories

Electric materials and supplies are recorded at average unit cost and propane inventory is recorded at the lower of average unit cost or market. Balances as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 are:

	2025	2024
Electric materials and supplies	$ 1,191,081	$ 1,220,717
Propane inventory	291,793	311,567
Total	$ 1,482,874	$ 1,532,284

Plant, Maintenance and Depreciation

Plant, property, and equipment are recorded at cost. The cost of additions includes contracted work, direct labor, materials and allocable overheads. When units of property are retired, sold or otherwise disposed of in the ordinary course of business, their average book cost, less net salvage, is charged to accumulated depreciation. Included in accumulated depreciation are non-legal costs of removing plant. Repairs and the replacement and renewal of items determined to be less than units of property are charged to maintenance. Any gains or losses on utility and non-utility plant and equipment using individual unit depreciation are reflected in operations. Depreciation for electric distribution plant is computed on the straight-line composite rate method which expenses the cost of plant over their estimated useful lives. General plant depreciation rates have been applied on a straight-line unit basis which expenses the cost of plant over their estimated useful lives. Depreciation rates are adopted by the Board of Directors.

Asset Retirement Obligation

The FASB ASC requires entities to record the fair value of a liability for legal obligations associated with an asset retirement in the period in which the obligations are incurred. When the liability is initially recorded, the entity capitalizes the cost of the asset retirement obligation by increasing the carrying amount of the related long-lived asset. Over time, the liability is accrued to its present value each period, and the capitalized cost is depreciated over the useful life of the related asset. The Cooperative has determined it does not have a material legal obligation to remove long-lived assets as described by the FASB ASC, and accordingly has not recognized any asset retirement obligation costs in its financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Leases

Effective January 1, 2022, the Cooperative adopted FASB ASC 842, Leases. The new standard establishes a right of use (ROU) model that requires a lessee to record an ROU asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet for all leases with terms longer than 12 months. Leases are classified as either finance or operating, with classification affecting the pattern of expense recognition in the income statement. Leases with a term of less than 12 months will not record a right of use asset and lease liability and the payments will be recognized into profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term.

The company elected to adopt FASB ASC 842, Leases, using the optional transition method that allows the Cooperative to initially apply the new leases standard at the adoption date and recognize a cumulative effect adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings in the period of adoption. As a result, the Cooperative reporting for the comparative period presented in the financial statements is in accordance with FASB ASC 840.

The Cooperative elected to adopt the package of practical expedients available under the transition guidance with the new standard. This package includes the following: relief from determination of lease contracts included in existing or expiring leases at the point of adoption, relief from having to reevaluate the classification of leases in effect at the point of adoption, and relief from reevaluation of existing leases that have initial direct costs associated with the execution of the lease contract. The cooperative also elected to adopt the practical expedient to use hindsight to determine the lease term and assess the impairment of the right of use assets.

Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets to be held and used are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the related carrying amount may not be recoverable. When required, impairment losses on assets to be held and used are recognized based on the fair value of the asset. Long-lived assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of carrying amount or their fair value less cost to sell.

Patronage Capital

Amounts received from the furnishing of electric energy in excess of operating costs and expenses are assigned to patrons on a patronage basis. Certain amounts received by the Cooperative from its other operations in excess of costs and expenses are allocated to its patrons on a patronage basis to the extent they are not needed to offset current or prior deficits. Dividends paid from the Cooperative's subsidiaries may be allocated to electric patrons on a patronage basis.

Revenue From Contracts with Customers

Performance obligations related to the sale of energy are satisfied as energy or propane is delivered to members. The Cooperative recognizes revenue that corresponds to the price of the energy or propane delivered to the member. The measurement of energy sales to members is generally based on a meter reading. The measurement of propane sales to members is based on gallons delivered. The Cooperative recognizes revenue based on the pre-buy contract or the current market rate set by the subsidiary. Electric revenue is based on board approved rates. The Cooperative cycle bills for energy sales and meters are read at different times for different cycles but are consistent on a monthly basis. The Cooperative does not provide an estimate for unbilled revenues at month end for electric service as the financial statement impact is minimal and accounting treatment is consistent. Payments for energy and propane delivered are due from members the following month. The following table presents receivables and liabilities which relate to customer activity (there are no contract assets):

	6,689,863	5,483,440
Total operating revenues	$ 45,583,756	$ 41,692,219

The Cooperative does not recognize a separate financing component of its collections from customers as contract terms are short-term in nature. The Cooperative presents its revenue net of any excise or sales taxes or fees.

Self-funded Health Insurance

The Cooperative has a self-funded health insurance plan which provides medical payments to employees and their dependents that are not covered by the high deductible insurance plan. The health care expense is based on actual claims paid, reinsurance premiums, administrative fees and unpaid claims at year end. All health care costs are expensed as incurred.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred.

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Cooperative's policy is to not use freestanding derivatives and to not enter into contracts with terms that cannot be designated as normal purchases or sales. Management has determined that the Cooperative has no freestanding or embedded derivatives.

Income Taxes

The Cooperative has been granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service and the State of Wisconsin.

Polk-Burnett Diversified Services, Inc. and its subsidiary Polk-Burnett Propane Services, Inc. and Polk-Burnett Economic Development Corporation are taxable at the federal and state level, and a provision for income taxes is included in the financial statements. A deferred tax liability for Polk-Burnett Propane Services, Inc. is recorded for future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between financial statement carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Principally these differences relate to depreciation of property and equipment and operating loss carryforwards.

Adoption of New Accounting Standard

Effective January 1, 2025, the Cooperative adopted FASB Accounting Standards Update 2025-05, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses for Accounts Receivable and Contract Assets. This update provides an accounting policy to consider cash collections occurring after the balance sheet date but before issuance of the financial statements. This update also provided a practical expedient to assume that current conditions as of the balance sheet date remain unchanged over the remaining life of current accounts receivable and contract assets.

The investment in DPC consists primarily of capital credits for the Cooperative's share of DPC's operating margins that have been allocated but not received and its share of unallocated operating losses. Operating margins and losses are recognized based on the Cooperative's percentage of DPC's power output sold to its members each year, which approximates the Cooperative's ownership in DPC. During December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Cooperative recognized income of $997,295 and $1,052,567, respectively, related to its portion of DPC's margin.

Investments in CFC represent undistributed capital credits allocated to the Cooperative as well as loan and capital term certificates. The certificates represent investments made pursuant to CFC borrowing requirements. During 2025 and 2024 the Cooperative recognized income of $68,165 and $59,428, respectively, related to its portion of CFC's margins. All CFC securities are classified as held-to-maturity.

The investments in Federated Rural Electric Insurance Exchange and Rural Electric Supply Cooperative represent undistributed capital credits allocated to the Cooperative. The Cooperative purchases insurance and material and supplies from these two Cooperatives. During 2025 and 2024 Polk-Burnett recognized income of $31,374 and $15,271, respectively, from Federated and $174,566 and $156,058, respectively, from RESCO related to its portion of these Cooperative's margins.

Economic Development Notes Receivable

In 2021, the Cooperative executed an interest-free loan in the amount of $180,000 to the Town of Lorain which will be repaid with ten annual payments of $18,000 which began in 2022. This note has a balance of $108,000 and $126,000 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

The Cooperative has $192,000 and $174,000 available as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively, exclusively for this purpose.

Rural Development Note Receivable

In 2019, the Cooperative executed an interest-free loan in the amount of $694,880 to Allied Emergency Services, Inc which will be repaid with monthly payments of $5,791 beginning in October of 2019, until the full amount is paid off or the tenth anniversary, whichever first occurs. The full amount was funded with an interest free loan from the USDA. This note has a balance of $260,580 and $330,068 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Short-term Investments

The Cooperative holds short-term investments associated with the National Rural Utilities Cooperative Finance Cooperation (CFC) and FNC Bank. The short-term investments are made up of commercial papers that begin to mature January 2026, bearing interest ranging from 3.40% to 4.02% and certificates of deposit that begin to mature March 2026, bearing interest of 3.95%.

A summary of investments at December 31, 2025 and 2024 is as follows:

Retired to date	36,963,268	34,761,391
Total	$ 58,637,465	$ 56,292,274

The mortgage provisions restrict the retirement of patronage capital unless, after retirement, the total equity of the Cooperative equals at least 20% of the assets of the Cooperative. However, retirements (exclusive of any distributions to the estates of deceased patrons) can be made if such distributions do not exceed 30% of the preceding year's net consolidated margin. No distribution can be made if there is unpaid, when due, any installments of principal or interest on the notes.

Distributions to estates are made at the request of the estates. The retirement paid out is discounted, and the excess is retained by the Cooperative as a gain on retirement of capital credits. Patronage capital credits, arising from prior years' margins, are retired chronologically.

No interest shall be paid or payable to the patrons on any capital furnished by the patrons.

2029	$	2,430,100
2030	$	2,335,041

Un-advanced loan funds of $5,250,000 are available to the Cooperative from CFC. The mortgage agreement with CFC requires, among other provisions, that the Cooperative maintain certain annual debt service coverage levels. The Cooperative was in compliance with the annual debt service coverage covenant at December 31, 2025.

Line of Credit

The Cooperative has a perpetual line of credit agreement with the National Rural Utilities Cooperative Finance Corporation providing the Cooperative with loans up to $5.0 million on a revolving basis. Interest is payable quarterly at rates established by CFC, which are not to exceed the lowest prime rate as published in the "Money Rates" column of The Wall Street Journal plus 1% or lesser rate as fixed by CFC. The agreement provides that combined borrowing on this and any other line of credit shall not exceed $5.0 million. Outstanding advances in any single calendar year may not exceed the prior calendar year's plant additions plus one-twelfth of annual operations and maintenance expenses. Any advances must be paid in full within 360 days of the advance or remain as long-term debt as the Cooperative can convert its line of credit to long-term at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The Cooperative had outstanding balances of $0 and $278,154 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Interest rate on this line of credit at December 31, 2025 and 2024 was 6.25% and 6.5%, respectively.

The Cooperative has a revolving line of credit with CoBank providing the Cooperative with loans up to $1.0 million on a revolving basis. Interest is payable monthly at rates established by CoBank. The rate was 5.62% at December 31, 2025. The term of the commitment is up to and including November 30, 2026. The commitment will be renewed for an additional year if the lender provides the borrower a renewal notice. The unpaid principal is due on the last day of the term of the commitment. The Cooperative had outstanding balances of $0 and $0 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The Cooperative has the intent and the ability to refinance on a long-term basis and therefore this is included in long-term debt on the consolidated balance sheets.

The Cooperative guarantees, through its propane subsidiary, a perpetual line of credit agreement with the NCSC providing the Cooperative with loans up to $3.0 million on a revolving basis. Interest is payable quarterly at rates established by NCSC, which are not to exceed the lowest prime rate as published in the "Money Rates" column of The Wall Street Journal plus 1% or lesser rate as fixed by NCSC. The agreement provides that combined borrowing on this and any other line of credit shall not exceed the prior calendar year's plant additions plus one-twelfth of annual operations and maintenance expenses. Any advances must be paid in full within 360 days of the advance and remain at a zero balance for at least five consecutive business days. The Cooperative did not have any outstanding balance on the line of credit as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

All outstanding lines of credit are classified as long-term on the balance sheet due to the long-term financing that the Cooperative has available.

In 1995 and 1996, the Cooperative refinanced its RDUP debt of $9.3 million with funds from CFC and RDUP resulting in a gain of $1,396,538. The gain is deferred and is being amortized over the remaining lives of the original notes using the effective interest rate amortization method. The amortization amounted to $10,102 for December 31, 2025 and $10,102 for 2024 and was credited to interest expense and the accumulated amortization is $1,376,334 and $1,366,232 at December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

The Cooperative recognized $160,000 and $250,000 of previously deferred revenues related to regulatory liabilities set by its board of directors for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. There were no additional amounts deferred for the years presented.

Note 9 LEASES

The Company leases its tank utility monitors under finance leases with 5-year initial terms. These leases automatically renew, and the Company has the option to do a $1 buyout at the end of the lease. The Company must inform the lessor of cancellation within 30 days of the original term or any extension and return the equipment in good working order.

The Company also has a separate finance lease agreement for tank utility monitors with a 5-year term. This lease states that the Company does not have the right to purchase assets at any time, however, the Company believes the lease term is for a major part of the remaining economic life of the monitors.

The following summarizes the line items in the balance sheet which include amounts for operating and financing leases as of December 31, 2025:

Note 12 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Multi-employer Defined Benefit Pension Plan

The Cooperative participates in two pension plans covering union and nonunion employees through participation in the National Rural Electric Company Association (NRECA) Retirement and Security Program, a defined benefit pension plan qualified under Section 401 and tax exempt under 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is a multiemployer plan under the accounting standards. The plan sponsor's Employer Identification Number is 53-0116145 and the Plan Number is 333.

A unique characteristic of a multiemployer plan compared to a single employer plan is that all plan assets are available to pay benefits of any plan participant. Separate asset accounts are not maintained for participating employers. This means that assets contributed by one employer may be used to provide benefits to employees of other participating employers.

The Cooperative made contributions to the plan of $1,107,063 and $1,120,555 in 2025 and 2024, respectively, and represent less than 5 percent of the total contributions made to the plan by all participating employers. There have been no significant changes that affect the comparability of 2025 and 2024 contributions. The Cooperative is required to make contributions for those employees covered by the collective bargaining agreement through April 30, 2027.

In the RS Plan a "zone-status" determination is not required, and therefore not determined, under the Pension Protection Act (PPA) of 2006. In addition, the accumulated benefit obligations and plan assets are not determined or allocated separately by individual employer. In total, the Retirement Security Plan was over 80 percent funded on January 1, 2025 and January 1, 2024, based on the PPA funding target and PPA actuarial value of assets on those dates.

Because the provisions of the PPA do not apply to the RS Plan, funding improvement plans and surcharges are not applicable. Future contribution requirements are determined each year as part of the actuarial valuation of the plan and may change as a result of plan experience. Non-union and subsidiary employees hired after January 1, 2025 will not be participants in the plan.

Defined Contributions Plan

The Cooperative has a NRECA 401(k) defined contribution savings plan for employees who meet certain age and service requirements.

Employees hired prior to January 1, 2025

The Cooperative matches employee contributions up to 1.0% for union employees and 6.0% for non-union employees' compensation into the plan. Non-union employees have to contribute 6% to get the employer's 6% contribution.

Savings plan expense was $211,177 in 2025 and $204,493 in 2024.

Other Plans

The Cooperative also provides employees with medical and dental insurance coverage, short-term and long-term disability, and life insurance, which are funded by employer and employee contributions.
